Livestock Men Keen For Fair This Year

Fair Committee Rejects Suggestion To Postpone—Finance Committee Reports—Harmony Reigns

Maui's second county fair will be held this year—probably in September or October. At least this was the decision of the general committee of the first Maui county fair, held yesterday afternoon, following a successful stampede engineered by the Maui Swine Breeders' Association.

Because of the strain incident to making the last fair the great success it was, a good many business men have been inclined to favor postponing the next fair until 1918 and combining it with the entertainment of the seventh annual civic convention. But the newly organized hog association jumped on this idea before it could be fairly expressed. Headed by Harold Rice, and ably backed by F. G. Krauss, Lorrin Smith, Dr. Fitzgerald and a number of other enthusiasts, the meeting was all but swept off its feet. A committee of five is to be named by President Wadsworth to consider plans for the next fair, and to report as soon as possible in order that an early start may be made.

Livestock Men Oppose Delay

In arguing against deferring the fair, the advocates declared that all classes of livestock raisers on Maui will lose valuable ground if one season is allowed to pass. So earnest are they in the matter that it was intimated that even if the business men in other lines lie down on the proposition, the fair will be turned into a livestock show and held anyway.

The meeting held yesterday afternoon was the first meeting of the general committee since the fair. It listened to a financial statement of the executive committee, showing a probable net balance of $1751.47 when a few outstanding bills are collected.

McKay Reappointed To District Court

Harry Mossman Named Second Magistrate—Question Of McKay's Citizenship Raised

Judge W. A. McKay was yesterday reappointed district magistrate for Wailuku district, by Governor Pinkham, and Harry C. Mossman was at the same time named second district magistrate for the same district. The creating of the place of second magistrate is an innovation. Mossman who is a deputy tax assessor, will fill the bench in absence of Judge McKay, or in cases where the latter may be disqualified.

Considerable interest centered in Judge McKay's reappointment on account of the fact that the Judge's term had expired some weeks ago, and by the report that Attorney Eugene Murphy had protested against the reappointment on the ground that McKay had never been properly naturalized. In connection with this, Judge Kalua, was summoned to Honolulu to confer with the Governor, he having been circuit judge in 1900 when McKay is supposed to have secured his papers. In looking up the records Clerk Schoenberg made the discovery that a large number of other residents were naturalized during the same month (October 1900,) under apparently the same conditions which were claimed to be irregular. Among these—D. C. Lindsay, Nils Omsted, H. H. Strenbeck, Andrew Gross, W. S. Nicoll, V. A. Vettesen, S. Hocking, Wm. Henning, and S. E. Taylor.

Big Carnival Pictures Of Haleakala Finished

D. Howard Hitchcock's great painting of Haleakala for one of the Carnival dioramas has been completed. It is the second of the oils to be finished, that of Honolulu and vicinity from Tantalus, by Joseph I. Whittle, from sketches by Lionel Walden and done under Mr. Walden's supervision, being the other. Haleakala was Mr. Hitchcock's work altogether. Each of these dioramas is ten feet by thirty.

Boy Scouts Thanked By Fair Committee

Check For Fifty Dollars Accompanied Letter In Which Good Work Of Boys Is Acknowledged

Officials of the First Maui County Fair have expressed their appreciation of the work done by the Boy Scouts at that time by sending a check of fifty dollars as a contribution toward their equipment. The following letter was also sent to Scout Commissioner Mathews:

Mr. L. R. Mathews,

Commissioner, Maui Boy Scouts of America,

Wailuku, Maui.

Dear Sir:

It is hardly necessary for me to mention to you that the Executive Committee of the First Maui County Fair appreciate most highly the valuable assistance rendered us on the occasion of our First Fair. It is an understood fact that the grand success that it was is due very largely to the excellent work done by the Boy Scouts.

Will you please accept the accompanying token with the compliments of the Executive Committee in the hope that it may be of some benefit in further equipping the boys.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) R. A. Wadsworth,
Chairman, First Maui County Fair
(Signed) J. Garcia, secretary.

It has not been decided just what disposition will be made of these funds but it is expected that the Maui Council, at its annual meeting at the Alexander House tonight will appropriate it between the troops participating. It will probably be used to secure much needed troop equipment.

Korean Is Charged With Capital Crime

Japanese Woman Of Puunene Claims Man Overpowered Her In Cane Field—Arrested In Hana

Kim Pon Ke, a Korean arrested the first of this week in Hana and brought back to Wailuku on Wednesday, was arraigned before District Magistrate McKay yesterday morning, and held to answer to the grand jury on charge of rape. The charge against the man is made by a Japanese woman of Puunene, named Kate Kano, who alleges that on January 3, the defendant assaulted her in a cane field where she was at work. Kim was an employee of the Puunene plantation but disappeared immediately after the alleged assault.

Wilhelmina Soon To Replace Lurline Is Report

Though nothing is officially known of the matter at Kahului, it is reported that the Matsuo steamer Wilhelmina is to replace the Lurline as the "Maui boat" after the new liner "Maui" is completed and placed in service. This will probably be within the next two months. The report has it that the Lurline will drop into the exclusive freight carrier class with the Hilonian and Hyades.

Fooling With Rifle Shoots Of Tip Of Own Finger

Jack Keehu, a helper employed in Dan Carey's blacksmith shop found out something about firearms last Sunday when he placed his finger over the muzzle of a small target rifle and pulled the trigger. He is now busy growing a new finger tip, but it will never be as good as the original. Jack says he didn't know the gun was cocked. A few seconds before he shot himself, he had been playfully poking a companion in the opu with the muzzle of the gun. After the accident Jack dumped the gun over a wall.

Fish Dynamiter Has Both Hands Blown Off

Mon Kee, a Chinese storekeeper at Kaupo, and of the old time residents of Maui, lost both his hands by the premature explosion of a stick of dynamite with which he was attempting to kill fish. The accident occurred near Kaupo last Friday night. It is reported that the injured man will probably recover. The police state that the criminal charge of dynamiting fish will probably not be pressed in view of the terrible punishment the culprit has suffered.

WAILUKU LADY CHARGED WITH HEEDLESS DRIVING

A warrant was issued this week for the arrest of Mrs. L. C. Jones, on charge of heedless driving. In turning the corner at the Maui Hotel, a wheel of Mrs. Jones' car came in contact with a fender of a car of Ned Nicholas, which was discharging a passenger at the time, damaging the fender to some extent. The matter has not yet been brought into court, it is understood that Mrs. Jones claims that Nicholas was stopped too near the corner and on the wrong side of the street.

Maui Corporation To Aid The Stork

Unique Saving's System Controlled By Local People—National In Scope—Headed By Prominent Citizens

There may be a few people on Maui who do not know that a $150,000 corporation has lately been organized here. But the fact that some 125 Maui citizens hold the stock of the new concern, and that their enthusiasm has done anything except seal their lips, makes it quite certain that a majority is well aware of the fact. That these 125 persons have subscribed and paid for in cash an average of over $1000 each is something that perhaps even those who have been watching the promotion of the new company have not realized. Yet this is the case, for the full three-fourths of the stock necessary to be subscribed for in order to incorporate has not only been taken, but paid for.

A Beneficent Scheme
The full title of the company, when the incorporation has been perfected, will be—"Stork System of Savings & Supply Company, Ltd." a Hawaiian corporation. At an enthusiastic meeting of the shareholders held at Kahului last evening, officers were selected, and articles of incorporation submitted by a committee, approved with

Rev. John Kalino Dies Suddenly At Kahului

In the death on Friday night of last week of Rev. John Kalino, of Kahului, Maui has lost one of its oldest Hawaiian ministers. Mr. Kalino was not sick long. In fact he seemed as well as usual on Thursday. On Friday he was about but went to bed a little earlier than was his custom. A few hours later it was impossible to wake him, when his daughter went to see how he was.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon at the Kahului Union Church. Revs. L. B. Kaumeheua, E. E. Pleasant and Rowland B. Dodge took part in the services. Moses Kahalo read the Scripture and John W. Kalua spoke feeling of his old friend, whom he had known for many years. Mr. Dodge and Mr. Pleasant spoke of his helpfulness at Kahului and his faithfulness in the services there.

He leaves a wife and four daughters. Miss Esther L. Kalino in Kona, Lizzie, who is a teacher on Maui; Mrs. Smythe, of Kahului, with whom he lived, and Mrs. William Buck of Kahului. Hiram Kalino was the only son.

Mr. Kalino was born at Waiehu and was about fifty-five years old when he died. He was pastor on Kauai at Waimea, then on Hawaii, and on Maui at Paia. He was a great assistance to the Kahului Union Church.

IN HONOR OF A VISITOR

Lindsay—Shepherd

The attractive Lindsay home in Paia was beautiful with its profusion of floral decorations, on the occasion of the marriage of Miss Esther L. Shepherd to Mr. David C. Lindsay, on last Friday evening. Standing beneath a floral arch of yellow and white blossoms, and surrounded by some hundred or more of the more intimate friends of the young people, the nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. A. Craig Bowditch, pastor of the Paia Union Church, promptly at eight o'clock. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rice and Mrs. C. E. S. Burns.

Following the ceremony the bride and the groom held a reception and received the warm congratulations of their friends. Delicious refreshments were served. The happy couple were the recipients of a wonderful collection of wedding gifts.

The bride, who is a recent comer to Maui from North Haven, Connecticut, has already endeared herself to all who have met her, and who rejoice that she will be a permanent resident here. Mr. Lindsay, who is the cashier of the Baldwin National Bank, is known as one of the leading business men of the Territory.
